

Interviewee	Age at the time of winning	Education	Country of origin	Marital status	Number of children	Prize amount	Year of winning	Shared or individual	Impact on work participation
Lars	43	Compulsory	Sweden	Married	1	≈ 2 million	2000	Individual, but shared with his partner	Shortened work hours, periods of leave for education
Magnus	47	Secondary	Sweden	Married to Lena	2 adult	≈ 5 million	2005	The prize split equally between him, his wife and the two children	None
Lena	44	Secondary	Sweden	Married to Magnus	2 adult	≈ 5 million	2005	The prize split equally between her, her husband and the two children	Shortened work hours – not due to winning, but to organizational changes
Eva	49	Post-secondary	Other Scandinavian country	Married	2	1.8 million (15,000/month for 10 years)	2003	Defined as belonging to the whole family	Periods of leave for vacations, no over-time
Jessica	49	Secondary	Other Scandinavian country	Married	3	1 million	2005	Defined as belonging to the whole family	Took legal action against her employer to be able to keep her job
Alfred	54	Post-secondary	Sweden	Married	0	4 million	1996	Individual	Shortened work hours, periods of leave for vacations. Thereafter early retirement

Linda	32	Post-secondary	Sweden	Married	2	2.7 million (15,000/month for 15 years)	2005	Defined as belonging to the whole family	Prolonged parental leave, less willing to be on call
Mona	59	Secondary	Sweden	Cohabiting	Adult	3.6 million (15,000/month for 20 years)	2004	Split equally with her partner	None related to winning
Siv	31	Secondary	Sweden	Married	2	6 million (20,000/month for 25 years)	1998	Individual, but shared with her partner	Shorter periods of leave for vacation, longer period of leave for education
Mats	52	Post-secondary	Sweden	Married	2	≈ 2 million	2000	Defined as belonging to the whole family	None related to winning
Amir	39	Post-secondary	African country	Married	2	4.5 million (25,000/month for 15 years)	2002	Defined as belonging to the whole family	Bought a summer business
Maud	55	Secondary	Sweden	Married	Adult	6 million (20,000/month for 25 years)	2002	Defined as belonging to the whole family	Resigned and ran a business despite lacking profit. Returned to former employer on her own conditions.
Sonja	53	Secondary	Sweden	Single	1	2.4 million (10,000/month for 20 years)	2000	Individual	None
Harry	63	Compulsory	Sweden	Live-apart	0	2.7 million (15,000/month for 15 years)	1998	Individual	Early retirement