SUMMARTÓNAR 2016

This year we celebrate the 25th Summartónar festival

Beginning in 1984, Faroese composers started organizing concerts of their own music together with works by international composers. After establishing the Association of Faroese Composers (Felagið Føroysk Tónaskøld) in 1987 these concerts became more regular, especially with the annual Spring Concert and a series of concerts over the summer in collaboration with the Listasavn Føroya. In 1991 a concert with works by several Faroese composers was presented at the St Magnus Festival in Orkney. After participating at a festival in a community comparable with the Faroe Islands, we decided to establish a similar festival the following year in the Faroe Islands. We used the name Summartónar from the beginning and in 1992 15 concerts were held in Tórshavn, Kirkjubø and Runavík with compositions by William Heinesen, Edvard Nyholm Debess, Alti K. Petersen, Pauli í Sandagerði, Heðin Meitil, Bjarni Restorff, Ólavur Jøkladal, H.J. Højgaard, Esmar Jacobsen, Sunleif Rasmussen, Kristian Blak, Richard Stanley and Graeme Rudd in addition to classical repertoire.

This year we celebrate the 25th festival with all the performing artists being either residents of the Faroe Islands or Faroese musicians living abroad. However, several of the participating ensembles also include musicians from other countries: Greenland, Iceland, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Germany, England, Russia, Togo. It is a sign of the strength of the Faroese musical scene that it is now quite possible to set up a programme of more than 150 concerts with predominantly local musicians performing mainly Faroese compositions at an international level, and we are also proud of the fact that Faroese musicians and composers are now an integrated part of an international musical network.

During the early years, Summartónar's programme consisted mainly of classical and newly written music in contemporary classical style. From 2005, however, jazz and new folk became an integral part of the activity.

Over the years more than 1600 concerts have been presented and each year several new works are performed - over 500 compositions have had their world premieres at Summartónar, the majority of these written by Faroese Composers.

Faroese Stamps
- The Wreck of Westerbeek

This stamp issue from February 2016 is presenting the unique story of the Dutch VOC ship 'Westerbeek' which ran ashore on Lopranseiði on the west coast of Suðuroy in 1742. Most of the men miraculously survived the wreck.

The Faroese artist, Anker Eli Petersen designed the stamps which also show items from the wrecked ship: a small casket made of tortoise shell and a wooden ironing board. The wood comes from Westerbeek's ornamental decoration.

The stamp issue contains two single stamps and a two-stamp mini-sheet.

TUESDAYS & SUNDAYS, JUNE–AUGUST

SPECIAL EVENTS:
CONCERTO GROTTU

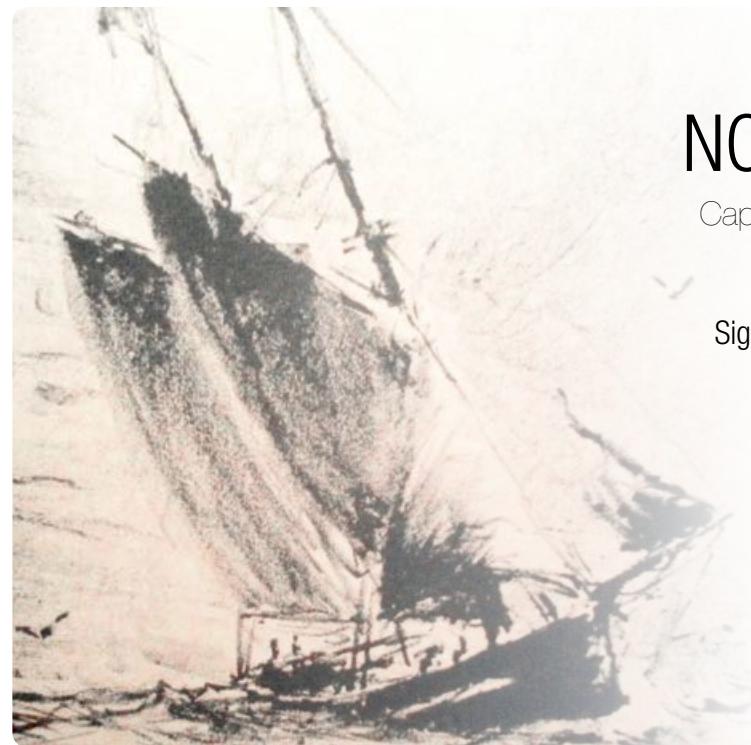

During the last several years, Birgir Enni, skipper of the vessel NORÐLÝSIÐ, and Kristian Blak have arranged trips with musicians and audiences to caves, into which – weather permitting – one can enter in smaller boats, utilizing the natural sounds and unique acoustics of the caves as integral parts of the music.

These concerts have taken place in collaboration with Summartónar, which brings visiting musicians in addition to local performers into these unique Faroese concert halls.

See programme for these concerts on Tuesdays from June 8th to August 16th
 – and Sundays from June 19th to August 14th

NORÐLÝSIÐ, Schooner, departs from Vágsbotnur, near Bryggjubakka 14, Tórshavn at 1 p.m.
 – Returns to Tórshavn approx 6 p.m. depending on wind and current.

Tickets at TUTL shop, Niels Finsens gøta 9c,

BIOGRAPHIES

ALDA MAGNA comprises four musicians who all live in the Faroe Islands. The compositions the group perform are atmospheric wanderings into abstract soundscapes with references to historical and contemporary music.

ALDUBÁRAN In 1995 seven young Faroese musicians formed an ensemble with the main purpose to perform and promote Faroese music. This ensemble is Aldubáran. Today Aldubáran has 14 members playing the flute, clarinet, bassoon, horn, trumpet, trombone, violin, viola, guitar and piano. This rather untraditional combination of instruments makes for great diversity in concerts and gives scope for composers. Aldubáran has commissioned and premiered a vast number of works by Faroese and foreign composers which have been well received by the press and public. Albeit Faroese music plays a major part in their programmes the masterpieces of the music literature are equally important. They have performed works such as Schoenberg's Pierrot Lunaire, Stravinsky's Septet, Octet, and A Soldier's Tale, and Schubert's Octet.

ANDREAS RESTORFF studied cello at the Royal Danish Academy, Copenhagen. Since then he has been a regular cellist in the Faroese Symphony Orchestra and has recently also played pop music with artists such as Teitur and Eivør.

ANGELIKA NIELSEN has premiered several new compositions by Faroese composers as a classical soloist. She also tours worldwide with folk/world/jazz bands Yggdrasil, Kvonn, Dánjal, Norðan and Norland Wind.

ANNA KATRIN ØSSURSDÓTTIR EGILSTRØÐ. Inspired by raw nature and big city life, Anna Katrin sculpts her voice in an electronic landscape of soundscapes and beats. With songs written in Faroese and English. Normally Anna Katrin performs with vocals and electronics but for the Concerto Grotto concert it will be her pure, naked voice that meets with the cave and the ocean's roar. Anna Katrin is also known as the singer in the band Valravn.

ARNOLD LUDVIG is a Faroese composer and the 2005 Atlantic Music Event, award winner for Best bassist. In 1992, he studied Jazz Performance at FIH music school in Iceland, was awarded a scholarship for Best performer, and furthered his studies in jazz at McGill University, in Montreal, Canada, from 1993-95. His cd releases on Tutl Records include, Arnold Ludvig Sextet, VOYAGES, in 2013 and ICELAND, in 2016, both have received great reviews from DK and FO.

BLUE GRASS BRASS BAND plays compositions for brass instruments and drum kit by drummer Rógvi á Rógvu.

DÁVUR & ANDRAS A friendship that started in Tórshavn Brass Band. They went their separate ways through Europe, and after many years in different countries they have now put their heads together again for a special duo project. For the occasion they have written original works, as well as adapted music from their classical music heritage.

DANISH CHAMBER BRASS was founded in the fall of 2013 by 5 young Danish brass players, who all are studying or previously studied at the Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen. The five young musicians joined together with a desire to explore the Danish repertoire for brass quintet and a wish to contribute to the production of new repertoire by acquiring new pieces for the ensemble by young Danish composers. Besides regular concerts in Denmark the brass quintet was well reviewed at the Danish Broadcasting Corporations Chambermusic competition in 2014. The five musicians are all based in the Danish symphony orchestras as permanent members and freelance musicians in Århus symphony orchestra, Danish National Symphony Orchestra (DR symfoniorkestret) and Royal Danish Orchestra (det Kongelige Kapel).

DÁVUR JUUL MAGNUSSEN is the Principal Trombonist of the Royal Scottish National Orchestra. Working as a deckhand onboard Norðlýsið most summers also means that he is no stranger to the cave concerts, and Klæmintsgjógv is, in fact, his favourite concert venue in the whole world.

DRIFA HANSEN is a Faroese opera singer currently based in Berlin. At Summartónar she presents classical music as well as new compositions by Faroese composers.

ELIN BRIMHEIM HEINESEN is a singer-songwriter well-known in the Faroes since the 70's. She is a soloist, but has performed with several artists – the collaboration with composer/producer Kári Jacobsen being the most notable. Elin is joined by two skilful musicians, guitarist Leivur Thomsen and bass-player Arnold Ludvig. Read more at: <http://heinesen fo/>

GUDRÍÐ HANSDÓTTIR is a Faroese Musician/Artist. Her sound is a mixture of pop/folk and electronic music.

Her main instruments are vocals, guitar and flute. She has released 4 solo albums and is also known as one half of the Faroese Electro Duo, Byrta. Apart from being a solo artist and member of Byrta, she is also a member of the Female Vocal Quintet, Kata. The Quintet performs modern interpretations of traditional Faroese songs.

HEDIN ZISKA DAVIDSEN is a rock guitarist with other interests such as metal and jazz music. As the bandleader of Tjant he composes all the material and has released 3 albums. Heðin tours widely with his own band and with bands such as Yggdrasil and Marius Ziska.

HERLUF LÜTZEN & AGNAR LAMHAUGE The guitarist Herluf Lützen has been playing jazz and rock music for many years. Agnar Lamhauge plays the double bass and the electric bass in this group. He is also a member of the Faroese Symphony Orchestra and is known as a member of the legendary folk group Enekk. Herluf and Agnar will be playing their own compositions.

HOLGAR is a singer/songwriter from the Faroe Islands. His successful CD "Ongan veg" was released in 2010, followed in 2013 by "Kanska tú svav". Holgar is a member of the band Villmenn with whom he has released 3 CDs as well as the band Tingane. His music is best described as folk/pop, and he has his own fingerpicking guitar style.

JÁKUP ELI JOENSEN (b.1982) is a gifted Faroese singer/songwriter. In 2011 he released the album, Kom við mer, and one of the songs "Vanja", became a hit in the Faroes that year.

JANUS Á HÚSAGARÐI (b. 1971) grew up in Tórshavn. He plays guitar, mandolin and sings. In 2014

Janus began writing his own songs, lyrics and music. His concert on 1st July is a release concert of his new album. Janus' music is inspired by Irish folk/rock.

KÁTIR KALLAR Herluf Lützen (guitar), Magnus Johannesen (piano), Arnold Ludvig (bass), Rógva á Rógvu (drums) – a new quartet with leading Faroese jazz musicians. They will be playing jazz interpretations of well-known Faroese music.

KENNETH JONES & BIRGITTE SCHNAKENBURG started to work and perform regularly together in 2008. Together they have performed many concert recitals in the Faroese Islands as well as in Denmark and London. In 2011 they released their first CD together through Tutl Tíðin Rennur, in 2015 the second CD Smilla.

KRISTIAN BLAK is involved in a wide range of musical activities. He composes for international classical ensembles, performs locally and tours internationally as a musician and bandleader with jazz, folk and world music groups.

KVONN is group of musicians from the Faroese Islands that plays traditional and contemporary folk music from Scandinavia. Kvonn's repertoire includes music composed by the band members, as well as traditional tunes.

LÍV NÆS (b. 1988) is a Faroese folk musician, best known for her debut album Tú skalt eiga morgindagin (2009). Since then there have been several other releases. Her last album was Keldufar (2012), which has music by Lív Næs and Tróndur Enni and poems written by her grandfather back in 1946.

MATTIAS KAPNAS (b. 1991) is a Faroese pianist. He has performed as soloist, chamber musician and with bands inside the Faroese acid, noise, space, jazz environment, most notably with the band Bendar Spónir. Mattias is currently a student of Amalie Malling at the Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen.

MONKEYRAT & THE HENTZE HORNS Songwriter & vocalist, Anna Iachino with superb bassist & composer Arnold Ludvig deliver multi-genre music rooted mainly in Funk. In 2010, MonkeyRat released their 1st cd, Fuck The Jante Law, followed by Sunshine in 2012 to great reviews from DK, UK, CA, & FO and in 2016 they released 3 new singles & teamed up with the kickin' funky Hentze Horns.

NORDAN Celtic harp & Nordic fiddle. Faroese violinist Angelika Nielsen and German harpist Thomas Loeffke combine in their duo programme their own compositions - a hybrid of Celtic and Nordic music - with traditional music from the Faroese Islands and Ireland. Both perform internationally with Norland Wind and various other groups. Their CD, Norðan is out on Tutl. www.nordan.fo ÓLAVUR JAKOBSEN Largely self-taught as a classical guitarist, he commenced his studies at the Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen with guitarist Ingolf Olsen. Ólavur continued his studies in Paris with French guitarist Roland Dyens and masterclasses with Sir Julian Bream and David Russell. Ólavur is co-founder of the Faroese chamber ensemble Aldubáran, and divides his time between teaching, performing, touring and promoting Faroese music.

STANLEY SAMUELSEN (born in Fuglafjørður, Faroese Islands, now based in Copenhagen) is a composer, guitarist, singer and songwriter. He has recorded 6 solo albums and has performed in all the Nordic and Baltic countries as well as the USA.

SPRUUS is a new folk trio of unruly musicians. We play mainly our own tunes, but also some Svabo, and other things that inspire us.

THE STAUFFER GUITAR DUO normally specializes in performing 19th-century music on period instruments, but for the 2016 Summartónar Festival a whole new programme concept has been conceived. Under the title "Modern Nordic Music for two guitars" the Duo has researched and chosen a bouquet of contemporary music from the Scandinavian countries including a commissioned work by Faroese composer Kári Bæk, which will be premiered during the festival. SVABONIO was formed to perform music from the 18th-century notebook of Tórshavn resident and polymath, J.C. Svabo (1746-1824). The project is now in its second year and features concerts of new arrangements for this Anglo-Faroese quartet of clarinet, horn, violin and guitar.

THOMAS LOEFKE learnt his trade in Dublin from Ireland's leading harpists. He has been touring, composing and recording (8 CDs) since 1984. When not a soloist, he plays with Norland Wind, Acoustic Eidolon; Norðan and Máire Breatnach. www.ThomasLoefke.eu.

For the past several years UNI R. DEBESS has been establishing himself as "Mr Blues" in the Faroe Islands. He has even succeeded in writing several hits alongside his various blues band constellations such as GoGo Blues, Debess Blues Station and Crawling Blue.

TRIO OMS is a Danish-Faroese wind trio founded by three students from the Royal Academy of Music in Aarhus. An untraditional combination of trombone, saxophone and trumpet opens a new world of possibilities in repertoire. The repertoire includes brass and woodwind trios, together with new compositions as well as arrangements made by the trio members themselves. The majority of the music consists of Nordic tunes in modern arrangements and these concerts will present trio's work with new Faroese composers including Heðin Ziska Davidsen, Kim Kristensen and Atli K. Petersen amongst others.

YGGDRASIL is a Nordic ensemble based in the Faroe Islands. Formed in 1981 by composer & pianist Kristian Blak, Yggdrasil has a repertoire that encompasses a wide range of genres, from free jazz to classical. Graphic artist ELENA SUHOVA from Surgut, Western Siberia will be performing 'live art' with Yggdrasil in addition to exhibitions of her art at the concert venues. <http://www.elena-suhova.com>
