

Let's Mobilize:
What is feminist
pedagogy?
October 12-14, 2016
Academy
Gothenburg, Sweden

THE FEMINIST BOOKSTORE
MOVEMENT
KRISTEN HOGAN
LESBIAN ANTIRACISM AND
FEMINIST ACCOUNTABILITY

Teaching
for people who prefer not to teach

The
Techno-Galactic
Guide to Software Observation
Are You
Being Served?
(notebooks)

Emily Roysdon
UNCOUNTED:
CALL & RESPONSE
secession

Edited by Culture
Machine
The Geopolitics
of Open
George
Chen
Gabriela
Méndez
Cota
Tasneem
Mewa
Maggie
Huang
Denisse
Albornoz
Ángel
Octavio
Alvarez
Solís

Do the Right Thing
Radical
Pedagogy STRATEGIC SEPARATISM UTOPIA

INDEX
SUMERGU
1967-71

SEE RED
WOMEN'S WORKSHOP
Feminist Posters
1974-1990

THE LIBRARY TALKS

with

EVA WEINMAYR

Tuesday September 24, 5-30 pm
Rietveld & Sandberg Library, basement Fedlev building

Eva Weinmayr's practice as an artist researcher and educator investigates the border crossings between contemporary art, radical education and institutional analysis by experimenting with modes of queer knowledge formation. In 2009 she co-founded AND Publishing, a feminist publishing platform and collaborative practice based in London and Gothenburg exploring the politics of publishing and dissemination by asking: why publish, how and for whom?

Current and recent projects include "Boxing and Unboxing" with Rosalie Schweiker, "The Piracy Project" with Andrea Francke and many collaborators, "Library of Omissions and Inclusions", "Let's Mobilize: What is Feminist Pedagogy?", amongst others. She has worked with institutions such as SALT (Istanbul), Zacheta National Art Gallery (Warsaw), Kunstverein München (Munich), MayDay Rooms (London) and The Showroom (London) among many others. She is currently conducting a practice-based PhD on the micro-politics of publishing.

The Library Talks is a series of lectures held at the Rietveld / Sandberg library. Each talk revolves around a selection of books made by the speaker, assembled out of the library's current collection as well as newly purchased books for the occasion.

